

Excellence in Advising Award Nomination Form

2017-2018 deadline for submission: March 30, 2018

Criteria and other information about the award

Who is eligible to be nominated? Any staff or faculty advisor is eligible.

Who can nominate a staff or faculty member? Any current or former full or part-time student, alumnus, faculty member, or staff member can nominate a colleague or oneself.

Who sits on the Award Review Committee? The Award Committee consists of members of an annual committee appointed by the Chancellor that includes the most recent recipient of the award

A $100.00 honorarium accompanies this award.

Award Form

Staff or faculty member whom you are nominating:

Your name :

Your email:

Your relationship to nominee (e.g., colleague, self):

1. Please describe the nominee's qualities, accomplishments and/or efforts that make her/him a worthy candidate for the Penn State Greater Allegheny Award for Excellence in Advising Award. Where appropriate, please describe how the nominee helps students achieve their academic goals, promote intellectual discovery, and encourages students to take advantage of both in and out of class educational opportunities in order that they become self-directed leaders and decision makers.

2. Describe any other qualities that you believe make this nominee a worthy candidate for the award, such as the individual's ability to effectively facilitate student success.

Please submit completed nomination forms to the Office of the Chancellor and Chief Academic Officer via Julianna Murin, either in person or electronically at jtm20@psu.edu who will direct them to the designated review committees for consideration.